One Unforgettable Halloween

It was October 31st, I woke up in the morning to the ringing of my alarm clock (BRIAN). I got dressed and shot down stairs to eat breakfast. After that, I mapped out my trick or treating route with my parents and tried on my costume that I had bought the day before. I was excited, but it felt like 4:00 was decades away. I sat on my bed with my eyes glued to the clock. Not long I knew I was in a deep sleep, lying on my back on my back. Three hours later, I sat up in bed. "Oh no! Oh no! It can't be true! Did I miss Halloween?" I jumped out of bed, bolted to the door, opened it and there was silence. "Come on Dad, it's time to go trick or treating!" I yelled excitedly. My dad and mom met me at the front door. Always was dressed in a white costume ready to hand out candy. Dad and I both were dressed in our costumes as well. I grabbed my bag and dad and I were ready for the big Halloween night! Time went by so fast that when my dad checked his watch it was already 7:00 PM. "This is the last house my dad said. The house looked so spooky it sent a shiver down my spine. I walked to the door, but before I could knock on it an old lady

An old witcher had opened the door and said "This candy I am about to give you is magical. When you eat it, it will give you super natural powers to turn into anything you wish.
She extended her arm with her palm open. She said "Take this candy from me." I snatched the piece of candy and put it in my pocket. Then she vanished like a ghost. The door closed and I ran faster than I ever had before into my dad's name. My heart was beating like I just ran a marathon. Can I have a piece of candy?
I asked my Dad. He said yes. So I tried the magical candy in my mouth. "Oh no!" "Oh no!" "Why am I getting so small?" I said to myself. I realized Dad could hear me. I was looking at my name in disbelief. I began to shout. I try to call Dad's name but my voice disappeared.
I look out my Dad. He can't see me. Dad begins to panic.

He starts retreating back to the room. Suddenly, a rainbow emerged from a hollow tree in a tree. "Do you know what happened to me?" I say to the rainbow. "Yes I do," he replied. "You've been tricked by the evil witcher." He stated, "How long does the spell last?" I asked. "Twenty minutes."

he says, "Oh my, how long have I been the way?" I say, "I turn around and tentatively follow my Dad's scent. Every step I take, fur is shudding from my body. My skin is appraising and I realize I'm getting closer. As I approach my front door, I see Dad waiting for me." "Hi Dad! I say. "Where have you been?" He replies, "Oh, I ran into a friend and went to a few more houses." I said, "He stared at me with a confused look, then a look of fear in his eyes." "I thought someone was after you and you were near my house," he said. "Huh, 'That would be an unforgettable Halloween, wouldn't it?"

The Chilling

Once there was a third-grade class taking a field trip to a haunted house in Callahan. Everyone except for 2 kids named Zahira and Luna loved haunted houses. Their teachers, Mr. Alex and Ms. Kelly, told them they were staying at a supposedly haunted hotel for the overnight they were doing. They told everyone that if your pajamas aren't too warm bring extra blankets because it's freezing in Callahan. On the way there everybody drew poop emojis and before everyone knew it, they were there. Aliyah could feel the nervous energy in the room. "We are here!" Ms. Kelly said cheerfully. "Yay!" Aliyah said positively she was trying to get everyone to be a little more at ease. They went through the gate which had a witch and the entrance bearing a skull full of candy and seemed to have a motion sensor because when every student walked by it said, "Welcome to The Haunted House of Callahan, take a piece of candy." One student reached for the skull but before they could grab a piece "Not so fast, we will get some candy at the store later but if we all get one from the skull there won't be anything left for anyone else." Mr. Alex said. Everyone nodded in agreement and the student who tried to grab the piece of candy named Hudson who felt ashamed and embarrassed. It was dark so everything was glowing but once they were halfway through the haunted house, they heard a creepy sound that went, "Ooh I will loom over all of you every day of your lives, I will hurt you, scare you, annoy you, and you will never get rid of me! Næver ever I say you will be stuck with me until ~~you, you will never get rid of me never ever never in your life~~ ~~get rid, of me and when you come into the underworld. I will~~ attack you, bully you, and nothing will ever get rid of me.” “H, H, h, who are you?” Mr. Alex and Ms. Kelly asked in unison.

“You will know soon enough, “said the voice. Suddenly the power went out a chill went down everyone’s spines the teachers’ ankles grew bruises and they winced in pain! ~~T~~the wrists of the children began growing numb and sore. “What is happening?” Aliyah asked “I- I- I’m sure it’s just cold and probably just some fog, maybe ~~and~~ there was a power outage right Ms. Kelly?” Mr. Alex said with a scared undertone ~~said~~.
“Totally!” Ms. Kelly said in the best positive voice she could fake. “Wait a minute!” Aliyah interrupted. “How could there be fog if there was a power outage and there is no fog in Callahan so it can’t be coming from the outside. ~~and~~ ~~T~~the only other way for fog to be coming into the haunted house would be if there was a ~~e is there is~~ fog machine,s but those rely on electricity, so Mr. Alex do you have a different hypothesis because I thought you were the science and math whiz. Huh?” “I uh I... Thank you Aliyah for that interesting comment. Heh.
Now everyone, ~~stays~~ calm and we will just find our way out.”
Mr. Alex responded. “Ow! I told you to bring a compass!” Luna exclaimed. ~~H~~er wrists and now her ankles were, well let’s just say that she could barely stand, but she was scared she’d sit down on a knife if she tried taking the weight off of her ankles.
“She’s right!” Zahira said. Then they saw a light, it looked like it was coming from a flashlight! ~~T~~they were scared it was the ghost, but they saw an body emerge from the fog. "Are you all okay?" The person asked. "Who are you?" Ms. Kelly asked. "I'm here to help you out of the haunted house, there has been a power outage and some weird sighting and sounds reported by people passing by, ~~and or leaving~~. My name is Lilly." "Oh my gosh someone is here to save us!" Aliyah said. Everyone sighed a huge sigh of relief. Once they were out of the haunted house they went to their hotel and finally got some rest, b. But they heard some weird sounds while they were falling asleep. Everyone woke up ~~and~~ panicked, but then Luna saw Aliyah moving her mouth and said, "It's just Aliyah ~~just~~ trying to scare us!" Everyone shared a laugh and then went to bed. The next morning, they got into the van got out their drawing books and went to work on poop emojis. They all felt a bit braver and some of them felt like they aren't safe to sleep anymore.

○ Once upon a time there were two girls. They just moved in their new home but their new house was not like any other. There house was tall, gray, and black. It had so many hideouts and secret passageways, but there was one that was so dark you needed five flash lights! On there first night in there new house they went down the secret passage way. They finally got to the end of the passage. There they saw were two giant doors they opened the door and there was something you can't even imagine. Leaves were everywhere on the ground. "It's like a totally different world!" said hannah.

Every thing was so spooky there were jack o' lanterns, witches flying in the air, and werewolves howling in the distance. "It's so scary" said Olivia who was only six. Then they were just about to leave and slam! The doors closed behind them a ghost was right there
"Hi!" said the ghost "I'm Oliver" "Hi!" said Olivia and hannah together.

"you should leave the werewolves roam this part of the woods around this time." "Oh no!" said Hannah nervously. "The doors are locked!" "so we need to look for the key!"
suggested Olivia, looking confused.
Suddenly a howl grew closer and closer and a werewolf was right there. Olivia, Oliver, and Hannah were behind a pine tree. Finally the werewolf left. "wait the werewolf dropped something!" said Hannah.
"It's the key we can go home," said Olivia happily. "Thank you for helping us" said Hannah "of course" said Oliver "but I didn't help you."

the werewolves did" "Thank you werewolves" yelled Olivia you could hear all of them howling back. "Lets go home" said Hannah "Ok" Olivia said "bye Oliver" "bye Hannah bye Olivia nice to meet you". "Bye" and so Olivia, did. Hannah unlocked the door and climbed back up to there rooms and dreamed of going back to see Oliver.

MONSTERS IN THE HOUSE

Once there was a house in the middle of the woods, but it was no ordinary house - it was full of MONSTERS! This house was for sale, but no one wanted the house until one day a family did. This family had a husband, wife, and twelve-year old twins. The family had a look at the house and they saw nothing, but little did they know it was full of monsters and rodents.

The house was filled with spiders, mummies, zombies, ghosts, witches, mice, and dogs, all were very deadly. The monsters had killed many people because they were very sneaky and they worked as a team. They thought they could take the family and eat them.

The family thought it would be easy to fix up the house, but it would be harder than they thought. One night they went to the house to start fixing it up. The twins went to explore and almost got caught. They ran back to their parents but they could not find them. Their first thought was they'd been captured.

The parents had been eaten and the kids were next. No one ever saw them again.
